ELECTIONS

Our election of officers for the 2000-2001 Bar Year is long overdue! We planned to vote at the Annual Meeting breakfast in Savannah but did not quite have enough people there at one time to make a quorum. We'll try again at the Halloween Party:

Notice of Specially Called Meeting:

A very brief membership meeting will be held during the Halloween party at 6:00 p.m. on Thursday, October 26, 2000 for the purpose of electing officers for the 2000-2001 term. All of the 1999-2000 officers are continuing to serve in an "acting" capacity and are willing to complete the term if re-elected. Anyone who would like to make any additional nominations should fax them to Kaye Young, Nominating Committee Chair, at (404) 589-0223.

SECTION NEWS

(P.S. Does the State Bar have your email address? Go to www.gabar.org and make the change)

- Thanks to Phyllis Holmen, the Section has joined Georgia Legal Services in co-sponsoring a Lawyers Foundation Grant Proposal to fund a public education campaign about legal services and the needs of low income clients. The application has survived the first cut and is moving on to the second phase of review.
- As of September 1, 2000, our Section has 305 members — the highest enrollment we've had since at least 1992 and possibly an all-time record!
- We're planning an evening cocktail gathering during the State Bar Mid-Year Meeting in January 2001. Watch for future mailings with details about date, location, and program.
- Congratulations to Section Co-vice Chair Michel Phillips on his recent successful television appearance on Jeopardy!
